

Ways to Help People in Afghanistan by @the_bulletin_buzz

During this terrifying period where the Taliban have dominated Afghanistan, it's important to show support and help those who are seeking refuge or whose lives are in danger in Afghanistan.

Sitting across the world we don't have the fear of being killed if we use our voices, so we should use our privilege to its advantage and be vocal against this humanitarian crisis.

We've compiled a list of legitimate organisations or pages that you can donate to, sign, follow and learn from if you don't have the capacity to donate right now.
